The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, SEPTEMBER 4TH, 1869.

IT is certain that, if the Chamber of Commerce here do not bestir themselves, a vast amount of trade that might be conducted at Canton, and which would consequently largely benefit the interests of this port, will before long flow Northwards. The able report made by the delegates of the Shanghai Chamber, will, no doubt, ultimately lead to the opening of trade on the Upper Yangtsze, and unless some similar concession be obtained with respect to the great West River, the trade of the rich provinces through which it flows, will in all likelihood be diverted to the nearest ports on the Upper Yangtsze. As was observed by Mr. ROWETT at the meeting last March, the Hongkong Chamber of Commerce might very reasonably ask that some of the large cities on the banks of this splendid stream should be opened to foreign trade, and steamers permitted to ply on its waters; but, although the River extends through some of the richest districts in China, and its mouth is not fifty miles from Hongkong, yet the Chamber does not take any steps with regard to it. At that meeting, it was resolved that a despatch, urging among other things the opening of this River, should be forwarded to Sir RUTHERFORD ALCOCK, and this has been done; but it is much to be doubted whether, unless it be backed by some practical action on the part of the Chamber, the recommendation can be of any use. The Shanghai Chamber of Commerce were very fortunate in being able to send their delegates on an official expedition; and, seeing how much invaluable information has been thereby obtained, it would seem very unfair that similar facilities should not be granted to the Hongkong Chamber, should they petition the Government to that effect. So long as mercantile men are kept out of the country, and it is rendered impossible for them to supply any reliable information to the Government, it is certain that the dense ignorance of people at home, with respect to the whole merits of the China question, must continue, and that no progress whatever can be looked for. All that the government and public at home hear with respect to the subject is of a vague and undefined description, and when they have read all that has to be said on the subject, they come to the conclusion that the mercantile men in China want some exclusive advantages for trade, and wish only to force a new order of things on the Chinese to their own benefit, and to the detriment of their weaker neighbours. Then the idea of the certainty of disturbances—carefully fostered by the Chinese officials for their own purposes—also rises up as a bugbear; and the upshot is the conclusion is arrived at that the gain is very doubtful and the risk very great in taking any steps for furthering trading facilities. The expedition to the Upper Yangtsze, however, clearly proves the fallacy of such views, and distinctly shows that, while an enormous trade can be conducted, there is very little chance of anything like disturbance. One or two "inevitable gunboats" would no doubt be required, but the additional trade that would result would a hundred times pay the costs of this outlay. The undoubted truth of this view of the question cannot but strike the public at home, when they are placed in possession of the facts of the case. The absurd notion of our wishing to force trade upon the Chinese, which considering that trade is a two-sided affair, is simply an impossibility, must vanish very speedily, when it is discovered that the trade upon which we desire to enter is already being largely conducted by the Chinese themselves, and that, despite great disadvantages and restrictions, the Eagles, Lions, Tigers, and other Zoological emblems, with which the dealers in manufactured goods delight to indicate their selections, are already as familiar a thousand or fifteen hundred miles in the interior of this country as they are in Manchester itself. If, then, the Hongkong Chamber of Commerce desire to see the West River opened, they should take some steps to procure an expedition being despatched to ascertain definitely what are the trading facilities that it will offer. It would certainly only be a matter of common sense for the Home Government to obtain this information before finally revising the treaty; and, if an application were made for one of the gunboats to proceed up the river, in conjunction with a tug or small steamer despatched by the Chamber, it would seem only right that such a request should be acceded to in the general interests of British commerce.

It would be perhaps difficult to find a better illustration of the defective working of the Stamp Act than the following, which actually has arisen. A draft on the Oriental Bank for the sum of three dollars is forwarded in payment of a small debt, and in order to get it cashed, it is necessary to place upon it a thirty cent stamp; or, in other words, to pay a tax of ten per cent. on it. Surely such ridiculously small amounts as this should be exempted from the stamp, which, as wittily observed by a prominent member of the legal profession, Sir Richard MacDonnell has left upon the Colony.

A very admirable basis of decision with respect to the question of the dismissal of employés, was adopted by Mr. Whyte, in the case of Shannon v. the Hongkong, Canton, and Macao Steamboat Company, in the Summary Court, on Thursday. The grounds adopted by His Honor were, that a series of comparatively small neglects would, when taken together, constitute such wilful neglect as, by law, will justify dismissal without payment of wages. The common idea is, that a servant is perfectly safe so long as he steers clear of any flagrant neglect of duty, or of any gross insolence or insubordination; and, no doubt, if a case is based upon one act, that act must be of such a nature. Mr. Whyte's view, however, certainly meets the common sense of the matter, as well as the spirit of the law with regard to it.

Commenting upon the recent discovery of the hull of a steamer, surmised to the Thunder, the Calcutta Englishman states that it has now been placed beyond dispute, that the hull of a steamer wrecked so far back as November, 1867, still exists, shattered and damaged though it be, and there is a strong hope that at the break up of the monsoon, the wreck will be easily accessible. It adds, that the enquiries resulting from this question of the existence of the Thunder, have further brought to light the fact that at various parts along the sea margin of the Sunderbuns, from Saugor island to the mouth of the Hurringotta, there are the remains of wrecks, and that scattered over the beaches of the more seawardly islands, and along the creeks and khals, are quantities of drift wreck. The whole matter must of necessity be taken up as soon as the monsoon breaks. But those who have found the Thunder, ought to be allowed to turn their discovery to account in their own way.

The same paper notices some rumours to the effect that the Panthays have been driven back from Yunan, and that the only two towns of note that they now occupy, are Talifoo and Momein, both of which are threatened by the triumphant Chinese. That paper, however, shrewdly observes that the reports omit one important particular. They do not say where the Chinese forces have come from, and such operations as would involve the evacuation of Yunan and the "threatening" of the original seats of the Panthay power, could only have been undertaken by a large and formidably equipped army. The rumours probably have their origin in the anticipated expedition of Li-Hung-Chung to Sse-chuen and Yunnan.

The Englishman mentions that the Burmah dispute has been settled by the submission of the king, and that it has been found that the massing of troops reported to be going on on the frontier was mythical. It is hoped the establishment of Mixed Courts will put an end to disputes. In a city like Mandalay, and amongst a people like the Burmese, a Court where the Judge is guided by principles and codes of law, "instead of by a fine natural sense of justice," cannot but be popular. It is considered that the opening of the Court will supply a want which has long been bitterly felt by those having business connections with Mandalay, and, in fact, to its absence is, in a great measure, due that irritation and anger which has grown up in Rangoon against the king and his ministers, and which has latterly assumed the form of a strong desire to see Upper Burmah annexed. It is also suggested as advisable that some measures should be taken for forming an Anglo-Chinese quarter or settlement at both Mandalay and Bhamo; a quarter, that is, where the subjects of England might be gathered round the Agent, instead of being scattered through the Burmese city. With the English residents insolated amongst the native population, defence on an emergency is impossible, whilst there are always numberless provocations to disputes. The treaty gives the right of settlement, and for its own dignity, the interests of its subject, and the sake of peace, the Government should exercise the right by purchasing, if necessary, the site for a settlement, "similar to those which have been found to answer so well in China."

The Legislative Council will meet on Thursday, the 9th instant.

A memorial has been lately addressed to the Emperor on the subject of Lekim taxation, advising that a tariff of dutiable goods, and of the duties payable, shall be posted up at every barrier for information, to frustrate extortion. —N. C. Daily News.

At a recent land sale at Shanghai, a plot of land at Tientsin, measuring 21 mow, with a water frontage of 157 feet, realized Tls. 630. A half lot with dwelling house, at Hankow, fetched 490; two other lots, also at Hankow, with river frontage of 124 by 85, and 180 by 161 Chinese feet, brought Tls. 70 and 50, respectively; 14 mow with a 400 feet water frontage, at Woosung, went for Tls. 135. Three lots measuring nearly 4 mow, near the Race Course, went off for Tls. 90. Two dwelling houses with the land on which they stood, and a block of Chinese houses at the back, situated on the Yang-king-pang, were sold,—for the former Tls. 5,900, the latter bringing Tls. 2,000.—Ibid.

Steps are about to be taken by those interested in the traffic between Shanghai and the North, to get a survey made of a new channel from the Yangtsze to the sea for vessels, and especially steamers, trading between Shanghai and the Northern ports. The channel in question lies to the North of the Tungsha Bank, and bears E. by N. and W. by S. between Shaweishan, and Block House Islands. At the Shaweishan end there is a narrow bar, but as it has not less than 15 feet at dead low water, that cannot materially interfere with its usefulness for vessels of ordinary tonnage. Indeed, this channel has been immemorially used by large rice laden junks proceeding from Shanghai to the North.—Evening Courier.

The chief of the Marine Department in Netherlands India, makes known to those whom it may concern, that Captain Annokhe, of the Dutch baque Scheveningen, reports that his ship struck on a hitherto unknown rock on the east coast of Banka. Immediately after the vessel's striking the soundings gave four fathoms, rapidly increasing to fifteen. This danger is placed in 1.19.12 S., and 106.13.48 E., from Greenwich. —Straits Times.

The man styling himself Rajah Megh Doo-neechund, who arrived in Singapore from Calcutta about a year ago, and who suddenly disappeared after the issue of a Warrant against him by a Malay trader residing at Campong Glam, some months ago, for upwards of $5,000, returned to that place from Batavia, by the Dutch steamer Baron Sloet van de Beele. On his arrival, he went at once to visit his creditor, asking time to pay off the debt, but the Malay trader declined to trust his fair promises, and forthwith sent for the Sheriff, who put the Writ in execution, and lodged the so-called Rajah in Her Majesty's Gaol.—Ibid.

THE NEW STEAMER "CHINA."

The following account of Messrs. Apcars' new steamer China, appears in the Newcastle Daily Journal, of July 14th. "Yesterday, the magnificent opium clipper steamer China, belonging to Messrs. Apcar, of Calcutta, made her trial trip, under the superintendence of Capt. R. B. Durham, after whose designs she has been built by Messrs. Wigham, Richardson and Co., of this town. The weather was most favourable, and the results in every way satisfactory—the true mean of the runs over the measured knot gave 12.856 knots, the revolutions of the screw being 62, steam 35 to 40 lbs., vacuum 27½ inches. She then ran from the Coquet to Tynemouth Lighthouse, the tide being slightly in her favour, at the rate of 14 knots an hour over the entire distance. The China is a sister vessel to the Hindostan, which left the Tyne about two months ago for the East. She is 300 feet long by 35 feet beam, and 24 feet deep, and her engines, made by the well-known firm of Thompson, Boyd and Co., are of 350 horse power."

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

September 3rd.

BEFORE C. MAY, ESQ.

Tan-a-choi, of Hoiping, a carpenter, upon the complaint of Tai-le-chung, a shop-keeper, master of the Lee-kee opium shop, was fined 50 cents, for making a disturbance in the shop of complainant, where after having made a purchase of the drug, and gone away, he returned and found fault with the change he had received for a packet of broken silver.

Lee-a-chee, of Tung-koon, shop keeper, and Chen-a-wong, of Sunwar, a lemonade manufacturer, were charged by P.C. 379, Tara Singh, with fighting and creating a disturbance at the Festival building at Possession Point. The first defendant said that he saw the second defendant talking to some family girls as if they were prostitutes, and remonstrated with him, when he and some of his friends pushed up against him and dirted his clean stockings. The second defendant, averred that another man trod upon the first which made him angry, and then he struck this man with his fan, when the second defendant, remarked, "Here is a crowd, why be angry for an accident?" when the first attacked him. He for himself had better manners than to insult family women. Both defendants were fined 25 cents each.

Kwong-a-sun, of Simon, a chair-coolie, was charged with having unlawful possession of some table napkins and two pairs of socks, having reasonable cause to believe that the same had been stolen, the property of Mr. Walsh, clerk of works in the R. E. Department, who stated that this man was his chair-coolie, and that he discharged him in the early part of the morning, and that on his return he observed the defendant about to leave the premises with his box, and that having been robbed very lately of bed and table linen, he determined to search this box, and upon doing so, found therein the table napkins and socks produced in court, his property.

Defendant stated that he took the napkins to clean the lamp, and had forgotten all about them. Convicted of unlawful possession, and fined ten dollars, or in default one month's imprisonment.

Lew-cheong-lee, a contractor for the removal of soil and emptying of bins, upon the information of the Inspector of Nuisances, was fined ten dollars, for not performing his contract according to the regulations; which impose upon him the necessity of removing all the boats he employs, from the different wharves, not later than 7 A.M. The defendant had been quite recently summoned, and warned that those whom he employed were very lax and careless about the time. As the responsible party, he was now warned that any repetition of this offence and nuisance would call for severe penalty.

Inspector Grimes brought up a man in custody, named Chan-a-chuh, who he stated was apprehended on the night of the 1st September, for being at large without a pass, when the defendant, Ow-tszo-shek, became bail, that he should duly appear at the magistracy at 9 A.M. on the 2nd, in which Chan-a-chuh had failed. He, therefore, appeared to produce the recognizances entered into by Ow-tsze-shek for the sum of $10.

The defendant stated that he was a member of the committee for the management of the festival, and the man whom he had bailed was in their employ. He believed that the man had appeared in Court, but afterwards found out that, through a mistake on the part of another member of the committee, he had been sent away on some duty.

Discharged, without the recognizances being estreated.

SUPREME COURT.

IN CHANCERY.

BEFORE THE HON. J. PAUNCEFOTE.

Comptoir d'Escompte and others v. Rodgers and others, and the official assignee in re Lydll, Still & Co. bankrupts.

The argument in this case was continued yesterday morning. Mr. Whyte, for the defendants, referred to the subject of costs, which he asked to be given as against the defendants; and Mr. Pollard replied on behalf of the official assignee, reviewing at considerable length his former argument and elaborating the points therein raised. Mr. Hayllar, for the plaintiffs, argued the question of costs, and judgment was reserved until Tuesday next, to which day the case of Henderson v. Comptoir d'Escompte and others also stands adjourned.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

Tam-a-foo, in custody under an execution by the Sheriff at the suit of Messrs. Bosman & Co., was adjudicated a bankrupt on his own petition, and being ordered to deliver up his property to the Registrar of the Court, as official assignee, was released from custody.

VANITAS VANITATUM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS."

DEAR SIR,—I hope you will think the following "clipping" from the N. C. Daily News worthy of notice:—"We hear that two copies of our Chinese Newspaper had lately the honor of penetrating to the palace. The Emperor had heard of its existence, and asked to see what manner of thing it was."

Lord bless my soul! And pretty surprised he must have been when he discovered what manner of thing it is.

Yours truly,

MR. ROWETT'S APPOINTMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS."

SIR,—It cannot be said that the correspondence anent Mr. Rowett being called to a seat in the Legislative Council reflects much credit on the writers, or serves to place Hongkong in a favourable light.

Supposing Mr. Rowett did make use of any and every one of the speeches attributed to him, has it never occurred to any one else—possibly to the authors of those very letters—to burn powder quick; flare up and subside again; to utter things in themselves most extravagant, and yet not extravagant at all under the circumstances which prompted the utterer's vehemence. We have all our particular form of explétive, as was explained three or four years ago in a most humorous article in the Saturday Review, "on Swearing."

If bystanders are treasuries of nothing but these vehement channels of showing righteous anger and disgust, ready to reproduce them at any moment, a time will come when such men as might serve the public, will learn to look upon themselves as foreigners in the Colony, and seek upon principle to avoid any occasion in which they might be tempted to form and express any portion of what, when fully matured, might pass for an opinion.

Men who are loyal with an intelligent perception of what genuine loyalty is, know, i.e., realize, the fact, that Governments must live; and when proffered such a seat, accept it, it may be, as the ultimate point at which they can stand and ex cathedra utter that protest which then must be inserted in Hansard, and which, from any other point, may be ignored.

Those who were well pleased with Mr. Rowett's having been called to the vacant seat it, the Legislative Council, cannot but feel than as one who had accepted a public distinction, he ought to have given the first evidence of his fitness and powers of self-restraint, his tact, his prudence, his savoir vivre, for this responsibility, thus thrust upon him, by suffering all the curs to snarl and bark without even appearing to recognize their yelp. Men who talk politics may be as snappish, and talk as much as they please in strong Quixotic phrase, but the statesmen called to counsel and to act, must wire down their effervessing ebullitions, and cultivate a new reticence of demeanour, lest their enemies, finding out their weak point, should ever be seeking new irritants.

Yours truly,
NETTLE-RASH.

"THE DIVORCE."

(Daily News.)

"'Tis true, 'tis pity; pity 'tis, 'tis true," that there are at the present moment no less than 1,533 petitions for a separation inscribed by husbands and wives at the Palace of Justice in Paris. Few of these lead to a reconciliation, though in many cases the petitions of the suitors are not pressed through lack of the necessary funds. The greater number, however, reach their sinister end. There are in France 44,567 persons who have been separated by the law. This, however, is but a small fraction of those who are separated in fact, though not by law; a consideration which has led a philosophical speculator across the Channel to issue the prospectus of a new monthly journal to be entitled The Divorce. We have seen the rise of many class journals, but surely of none more singular than this, which is to be devoted to the subject of family quarrels. The proverb which suggests to all men that they should have their family linen washed at home, is of French origin, and it is odd to hear of a proposal in France to neglect this wholesome rule, and to establish a journal for the express purpose of having the linen washed in public. The oddity of the proposal becomes ludicrous when we think of the class to whose interest the new journal is to be devoted. A journal cannot be supported by a class unless in the class there is some principle of cohesion. And what is the principle of cohesion in the class of persons who are to keep The Divorce going? Simply this—that every member of it has had a deadly quarrel with his or her nearest and dearest friend, and has, for reasons good, bad or indifferent, broken, or determined to break, the most sacred and tender tie which can bind two human beings together.

THE REBELLION IN SZECHUEN.

The following interesting letter appears in the Shanghai Recorder:—

DEAR SIR,—So little reliable news reaches us from the interior, that your readers will be glad of the following item. Under date the 13th ultimo, an educated foreigner of my acquaintance writes as follows:—

"This leaves me at Chung Ngan Kiang, a town on the banks of a river in Szechuen, some six days' journey from Kwei-yang-foo,* and mid way between the cities of Wang-ping, Sin-too, and China-ping-heen,—i.e., about 80li from each. When I wrote you last year I told you we were going to winter at Kwei-yung. Instead of that, however, we invested and took Whang-ping-tso, where we staid, till we where able to march on Whang-ping Sin-tso, or new city, which we garrisoned, and then on to Chung Nyan Kiang and Chung-ping-hien. You will see by this that we have done some fighting with Miaotze;—though I fear it is all of little avail, for they are getting bolder and bolder, and now quite surround us;—coming in on us night after night, and keeping us constantly on the alert. At first we found them armed with matchlocks only. Now, however, they have good foreign muskets, and whereas before we could see their match lights long before they came within range, now they are right up to us, and pepper away with a will. Nearly all the Imperial forces in Yunan have been driven into this province;—they seem to have been frightfully licked, for they lost all their ordnance and the other munitions of war. These fell of course into hands of the Kwei-Kwei-tses, or Mahomedans, by whom what Imperialists do stay in arms still, are besieged, and are bound to cave in the long run. The Hunan force, too, has been badly crippled, and lost the other day with 1700 men over 2000 of your Kau-chaong-miau arsenal muskets. In short, that splendid establishment of Falls', so far as I can see, is only of use to feed the enemy. The Kwei-choo force again is thoroughly demoralized, and has been beaten by the Miaotze on all hands. All their ammunition is gone, and you may say "the force" is no where, or a la Yankee, "up a tree." Only we of this Sze-chuen force manage to hold together, and fight the Miaotze, daily almost; all the rest have retreated some five or six days travel, and unless we get the long-hoped for reinforcement, we shall have to tack ship too. It is said, however, that great exertions are being made to raise a new "Ever Victorious," with lots of foreign officers from your place for drilling. Enfield rifles, &c. Money is precious scarce hereabout, however, and I hardly know what to expect.

"On the 5th day of the 5th moon (4th ult.) Dragonfeast day, the inhabitants of T'Sun-ye-foo (in Kweichoo), who for a long time have had a grudge against the Roman Catholic priesthood, got their "danders" up, and nothing would pacify them but "down church"—and down it come;—a really magnificent fabric, recently erected, and which they razed to the ground.

"They severely maltreated many of the native Christians and destroyed their property too, and so offended Jean Crepaud that he has put in a demand for the modest sum of a lakh and a half of taels, just about the figure wanted to put our army in proper fighting order. The Footai of Kwei-yang-foo received the deputation of missionaries with great humilitude of spirit, and promised to do what he could to satisfy the demand. That he is in earnest there can be no doubt;—a commission of several Wei-yuens having gone to the place to draw up a report, estimate damage, &c. But it is not much power the Imperialists have this side of the Yangtsze to enforce any such demands, and it strikes me but a short time will pass ere it be less. Send me a map if you can."

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours truly,
T.

SIR RUTHERFORD ALCOCK AND TELEGRAPHY IN CHINA.

The following is addressed to the N. C. Daily News:—

SIR,—In his second letter on the "Political Situation in China," which appeared in your valuable journal for July 24th, Mr. Robertson remarks,—"Sir Rutherford Alcock, one of the justest and most considerate friends of the Chinese, has given us the most emphatic testimony on the subject [of the progressive policy of China] in a letter to Mr. Medhurst, dated March 12th, 1869, [in answer to a memorial from Dr. Macgowan, urging on the Chinese Government the adoption of telegraphs.] He says:—You may inform Dr. Macgowan, that there is no argument in favour of telegraphy referred to in his letter, which has not been repeatedly and earnestly pressed upon the attention of the Ministers of the Tsung-li Yamen; and no objection to it on the part of the Chinese, that has not been met in the way he would indicate, by my colleagues and myself."

On the 19th November, ulto., Sir Rutherford had a demonstrative interview at the Tsung-li Yamen with Prince Kung, at which he delivered to the Board in question a kind of verbal ultimatum relative to the revision of the treaty of Tientsin, and the leading points of which had been communicated to the Board in writing. I have a copy of the English original of this document, signed "Rutherford Alcock" before me. It is entitled "Heads of a communication made to the Yamen on November 9th, 1868," and prefaced by the introductory remark, "the British minister has asked for this interview to assure himself that the Prince and ministers of the Foreign Board clearly comprehend the present position of affairs, as regards the proposed measures for the better execution of the treaty, and the approaching period for a revision." The 16th of those "heads," of which there are eighteen in all, reads thus:—"Finally, it will remain for the British minister to show that, so far from any undue pressure having been resorted to, a whole year has been devoted to the patient consideration of the whole subject. So far from any demands for sudden and great changes, before the Government or country could be prepared, having been made; many, which might be desired, have been altogether ignored, because they were of this character, such as railroads and telegraphs; although, even in these, very gradually, a beginning might obviously be made, and as an experiment which would entail no serious prejudice to any national interests." Dr. Macgowan will probably form an opinion of his own as to Sir Rutherford's peculiar method of "earnestly pressing every argument in favour of Telegraphy, referred to in his memorial, upon the attention of the Ministers of the Tsungli Yamen."

Sir Rutherford however states that this pressure has been "repeatedly" exercised, and that "every objection to Dr. Macgowan's arguments, on the part of the Chinese, has been met in the way he would indicate, by his colleagues and himself." I presume His Excellency alludes to the joint interview which he and the late American Minister had with the members of the Tsung-li Yamen, a week subsequently to the one just referred to, viz., on the 16th November, 1868. The arguments on that occasion submitted to the Chinese Board by the Hon. Mr. Ross Browne, and supported by Sir Rutherford, were by the American Minister reduced to writing, and in this form addressed to the Tsung-li Yamen on the 23rd of the same month. The document has subsequently been made public, and reproduced in your journal of the 29th July. It bears little more evidence of joint "earnest pressure," as regards the introduction of railways, than do Sir Rutherford's "eighteen heads." The Hon. Mr. Ross Browne appears almost as timid and considerate upon this point, as the British Minister had been a week or two earlier. In the spirit of the latter, he states that "it could not be expected, much less desired, by a friendly power, that sudden and extraordinary changes should be made"; and considers that "even a tramway from the coal mines, in the vicinity of Peking, to the city walls, or to the river, would be a reasonable beginning." Telegraphs are not even specially mentioned; and consequently no objections, on the part of the Chinese, to Dr. Macgowan's arguments in support of telegraphy, are met. It is only in the concluding paragraph of his letter, that the late American Minister states: "It is manifest to my mind that . . . [among other improvements] the gradual establishment of telegraphs and railroad systems, are essential measures of modern intercourse," significantly adding: "and that some earnest of beginning, without unnecessary delay, would avert much future misunderstanding. . . . Modern nations, under the general impulse, move rapidly, and will not be likely to leave the work of the present generation to posterity." But this was the personal language of the Hon. Mr. Ross Browne; not that of Sir Rutherford Alcock. I am unaware that the British Minister has ever resorted to a less considerate pressure upon the Chinese Government in favor of Telegraphy than that exercised by him, under the 16th head of his "ultimatum," on the 9th November, 1868.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN VON GUMPACH.

Peking, August 12th, 1869.

[It does not at all follow that, because Baron von Gumpach is unaware of the fact, H.B.M. Minister may not have repeatedly urged on the Foreign Board the advantages of telegraphy and railways, conversationally, and as opportunity offered. It is probable the "16th head" quoted, referred simply to the treaty, and meant that the insertion in the treaty of a pledge to introduce those improvements, had not been pressed.—ED. D. N.]

* Kwei-yang-foo, in the Kwei-choo Province, according to Gutzlaff, is in 26.30 N. and is 9.52.20 west of Peking. When he wrote the governors were said to be in continual terror from the Meautze, who—"like the Highlanders of old, made frequent descents upon the lowland, and plundered the unsuspecting peasants." They even aimed at getting possession of the whole province.

PERSECUTION OF CHRISTIAN CONVERTS.

To the Editor of the "North China Daily News."

DEAR SIR,—The part which Chinese officials here have taken in a case of religious persecution, which has lately occurred in this vicinity, shows how little regard they have for treaty stipulations, a least such as relate to the protections of native Christians.

About a month since, a native catechist of the name of Miao hwayu, commenced work in the city of Chow-yuen. He is a man of good family, and in independent circumstances, and though connected with our mission, receives no salary from us. With the assistance of Rev. C. Mateer, who was spending a few weeks in Chowyuen at that time, he succeeded in renting a house to be used as a chapel. Mr. Mateer was present when the chapel was opened. After his return to Teng-chow, Mr. Miao continued his work quietly, being visited daily by persons who come to enquire about Christianity. On the 12th of August, Mr. Miao and his landlord both were most unexpectedly summoned to appear before the Che-hien. The landlord was first examined, and on the charge of introducing devils (kwei-tz) into the city, was sentenced to receive two hundred blows, which were administered forthwith. This beating was excessively severe.

After this, Mr. Miao was called and charged with the crime of having embraced the religion of the "foreign devils," and of attempting to propagate false, corrupt and dangerous doctrines. He replied by referring to the clause of the treaty relating to Christianity; and in answer to numerous questions of the Che-hien, gave a brief summary of the outlines of the Christain religion, speaking particulary of a future state of rewards and punishment, and of salvation through the death and sufferings of Christ. At this point the officer exclaimed—"Then Jesus, really suffered in your stead, did he?" to which Miao replied, "He certainly did," whereupon the Che-hien ordered him to be beaten at once fifty blows. After he had received more than forty heavy blows, and when the blood was flowing freely from his wounds, the officer asked him tauntingly, "can Jesus bear that for you?" Mr. Miao refused to confess the crimes with which he was charged, and was ordered to prison. In the evening the Che-hien again called him and told him that he had determined to send him to his own city, that the magistrate there might beat him to death.

The next morning, with a chain round his neck, and in manacles, with an escort of five Yamun underlings, he was taken to the city of Ohe-hia, forty English miles distant. He walked the whole way, though suffering much from his wounds and from physical exhaustion. The next day he was brought before the magistrate, and commanded to make a confession of guilt, which as before, he refused to do. The official despatch from Chow-yuen, containing the charges against him, was then thrown to him to read. Its specifications were as follows:—"Miao Hwa-yu, under the false guise of preaching religion, in connection with a Mr. Mateer, took forcible possession of a house in the eastern suburbs of this city. He makes use of mysterious arts to deceive the people. It is his purpose, in connection with the foreigner Mateer, some time in the 8th month, to kill the officers, and raise an insurrection." In order to force from him a confession of these accusations, he was beaten 300 blows, with one hundred additional on his face. The next day he was examined at great length, with reference to the doctrines he preached. And the magistrate seems to have satisfied himself that the charges were false. He ordered that Mr. Miao's chains should be taken off, and that he should receive no further ill-treatment. He also sent for the leading men of Mr. Miao's village, who all testified to his being a good citizen. He then called for his accusers, but none were to be found. The Che-hin officer appeared, however, afraid to take the responsibility of releasing him, and he is still in prison, with no immediate prospect of being liberated.

In this case of persecution there has been no public excitement or mob. All that has been done, has been formally and officially by the officers; through, we have reason to believe, at the instigation of about a dozen prominent men in the city of Chow-yuen. As far as we can learn, Mr. Miao has been guilty of no offence, and the treatment he received is owing purely to hatred of foreigners and of Christianity.

The matter has been placed in the hands of the Acting American Consul at Chefoo. How it will terminate remains to be seen.

Yours, &c.,
JOHN L. NEVIUS.

THE GALE AT YOKOHAMA.

Early on Friday morning, August 20th, the wind which had been blowing the previous night pretty stiffly, gradually increased in force, and about 9 A.M. raged so furiously as to awaken grave apprehensions in the minds of ship captains, and owners of "rustic retreats" on the Bluff, as to the safety of their respective properties.

The whole of the morning the glass continued to fall, and the sea rising with the increased fury of the gale, caused the vessels in the harbour to pitch and toss about heavily, testing severely the strength of their cables and the quality of the holding ground.

The harbour presented a scene of the greatest confusion, from the absence of any system or regulations as to the mooring of vessels, and it soon became evident that were one of the rolling ships to part her cables, much damage to life and property would ensue. Now, steamers began to get up steam, so as to be prepared for the worst, and the crowded harbour, according to our contemporary, the Times, presented "an interesting sight"—very interesting, doubtless, to those captains, who, unable get afloat, stood on the Hatoba anxiously watching how their vessels rode at anchor. About 11 o'clock the Nautilus parted one of her cables, and before she could weigh the other anchor and run out clear of the shipping, a sudden guest sent her into the schooner Bezaleel, and after inflicting considerable damage to her hull, spars, and rigging, sent her adrift to work further destruction. The Bezaleel now at the mercy of the wind and sea, drifted helplessly about, and as she collided with one or more vessels, left visible marks of her unexpected and unwished for visit. The following are the reported injuries, so far as we have been able to ascertain. Schooner Bezaleel lost bowsprit, jibboom, foremast, top gallant mast, one anchor, starboard bow cut down to the copper, two or three beams broken, starboard quarter stove in, fore and main rigging carried away, all the stancheons on starboard side broken, and bulwarks greatly damaged, in fact the vessel is a complete wreck. The French barque Saint Germaine lost bowsprit, jibboom, and all her head gear, bulwarks on starboard bow also stove in. H.M.S. Vessel Sylvia lost bowsprit and jibboom, Str. Adeline lost jibboom. Schooner Maggie, stern and poop rails badly injured, and Str. C. J. Tester had her port bow slightly damaged.

Captain Hutchinson, of the American ship Naples arrived in town on the 21st, bringing the news that his vessel parted her cables during the gale the previous day, and went ashore, compelling him to cut her masts away to save the ship. Coolies have been sent down to the vessel to heave the ballast out of her, and so try and get her off.

On shore, the effects of the storm were severely felt both in the foreign and native settlements, in the latter, many houses were blown down and several lives were lost. The flagstaff at the Swiss Consulate came down with a crash, doing considerable damage to the roof of the gatekeeper's house. The flagstaff at the U. S. Consulate, and the one at the Admiral's house on the Bluff, also came signally to grief. Shingles and tiles were flying about in all directions. The new British Consulate did not escape, part of the zinc being torn off one of its towers. The smithy, lately erected by Mr. Howles, was completely blown down; happily, however, no one was injured; the owner saw it was going, and gave the alarm. All the forges were alight at the time, and had it not been for the assistance of some men-of-war's men who happened to be on the spot, the débris would have ignited, and set fire to the adjoining premises, the consequences of which, with so severe a gale blowing, would have been fearful.

The following is Capt. Hutchinson's account of the

WRECK OF THE AMERICAN SHIP "NAPLES."

The American ship Naples, Captain Hutchinson, left Yokohama for Manila on the morning of the 18th inst. In the evening anchored off Graham's Bluff, at the lower end of Missipi Bay, light variable winds. Midnight, fresh breeze from S.E. Daylight, wind increasing, with rain from same direction, and barometer falling.

8 a.m., strong gale with heavy shower of rain; Barometer falling rapidly. Let go a second anchor.

At noon, wind S. by E., all chain out on both anchors, and blowing a terrific storm, the gusts of which coming at short intervals, threatened to heave the ship on her beam ends.

At 2 p.m. the wind varying more off the land, with increasing violence, both chains parted; the ship driving helplessly towards a lee shore with her head to the Eastward. Sail was made at once to try and get headway, one of the chains that was dragging without an anchor was slipped, and the other preparing, but the violent tempest had the whole command of the ship, and in a short time she struck in the midst of the breakers off Treaty Point, and to save her from falling on her broad side, as well as to ease her, the rigging was cut away that the masts might go, and before the shrouds were properly cut, the masts, without any invitation from the axe, immediately fell.

THE LABOR PROBLEM IN THE SOUTH

(From the Macon, Ga. Journal, June 9th.)

We find an almost unanimous response, on the part of the journals of the South that have spoken on the subject, to the proposition laid down in this paper with reference to the substitution of Chinese for negro labor. It is a question whose solution will soon be upon us, and that will demand prompt consideration and speedy action. Every planter who hired hands this year knows how difficult it was for him to procure not alone the quality, but the quantity he desired, and there is nothing happening to assure him that those difficulties will be anything but aggravated next year. If the system of large plantations and numerous laborers, all working under one head, is to stand—and only that system, we maintain, can keep the cotton crop up to average figures—the labour to cultivate them must come from somewhere else than the negro ranks.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

HONGKONG, FRIDAY EVENING.

The drug market has been in an unsettled state for Bengal to-day. At the opening new Patna was placed at $570 cash, and $572½ on 3 weeks time. A lot of 10 chests Malwa changed hands at $650 cash, and about 20 chests at $660, on credit to the natives. The stock of this drug is so very much reduced, and in the hands of strong holders, that it is not at all unlikely that a still better range for cash will be realized. The following may be taken as the closing rates on cash and credit terms:—New Patna, $572½ to $576½; New Benares, $560 to $562½; Old Patna, $550, quoted; Malwa is held for $660, cash. The steamers Clan Alpine and Hindoostan have brought about 2,730 chests for this market.

The 8th opium sale of this year was held on the 9th ultimo, when 2,200 chests Patna and 1,545 chests Benares were sold at the following rates:—Patna sold highest Rs. 1,235, lowest Rs. 1,245, average Rs. 1,267.8.2. Benares, sold highest Rs. 1,230, lowest Rs. 1,225, average Rs. 1,226.5.8¾. The result shows a decline on the averages of last sale of Rs. 44.8.11 for Patna, and Rs. 38.13.10¾ for Benares. There was little or no variation in the price of the drug after the sale, and no alteration was looked for, until the arrival of the China news. Quotations on the 18th ultimo were, Old Patna Rs. 1,225; New Patna Rs. 1,252; New Benares Rs. 1,230 per chest.

There have been further large speculative purchases of 8¼ Grey Shirting by a foreign firm, but the market has not as yet shown any effects. The quantity has been increased to-day, in addition to that reported yesterday, to 32,000 pieces, purchased at $2.85, aside from this there has not been much business doing. The following sales are reported, 1,500 pieces 8¼ Grey Shirtings, Eagle at $2.85, 3,350 pieces Lion chop at $2.82½, 1,000 White Shirtings at $2.35 to $2.37½, 600 pieces Dutch Drills at $4.75, 300 dozens Handkerchiefs at 72 cents 1,500 pieces Turkey Red at $2.70 to $2.75, 4,300 pieces 6lbs. T-Cloth at $1.92½ to $1.95, 1,500 pieces 7lbs. at $2.37½, and 500 pieces at $2.20, 100 pieces Long Ells at $7.80, 160 pieces Camlets, SS scarlet, at $16.80, and 480 pieces Spanish Stripes at 72 to 92 cents, and 25 bales No. 16-24 Yarn at $138. The Yarn men have been inquiring with considerable anxiety to-day, but they do not as yet seem willing to come up to ideas of holders, who are very firm. There have been a few small Sales of Raw Cotton, say 50 bales Bombay at $22.10, and 190 bales Bengal at $16.75 to $19.50.

According to advices from Shanghai, per Suwonada, there had been considerable foreign speculation in the market for piece goods, and the native dealers were beginning to come forward, when the arrival of the steamer Dimmed and five other cargoes, checked business to a great extent. 8¼ lbs. Grey Shirtings Tls. 2.2.2, and the market became very much quieter. There was, however, a fair amount of business in progress. Klatcha Telegrams report the arrival of new Shanghai silk, some kinds of which bid fair to show a loss of 2s. per pound.

The Champion, with a general cargo for this place, arrived to-day.

IMPERIAL QUARTO.
ENGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY, WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.
AN ANGLO-CHINESE DICTIONARY, by the Rev. W. LOBSCHEID, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong.
FOR scope and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.
The scope of the work is so great, and its utilitarian purposes so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully, with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasionally.
It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages.
Price in London, £7 4s.; in Hongkong, $30.
TRUBNER & Co., 60, PATERNOSTER ROW;

THE PERFECTION OF PREPARED COCOA.
MARAVILLA COCOA.
Sole Proprietors—TAYLOR BROTHERS, London.
THE COCOA (or CACAO) of MARAVILLA is the true THEOBROMA of LINNÆUS. Cocoa is indigenous to South America, of which Maravilla is a favoured portion. TAYLOR BROTHERS having secured the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, have, by the skilful application of their soluble principle and elaborate machinery, produced what is so undeniably the perfection of prepared Cocoa, that it has not only secured the preference of homœopaths and cocoa-drinkers generally, but many who had hitherto not found any preparation to suit them, have, after one trial, adopted the Maravilla Cocoa as their constant beverage for breakfast, luncheon, &c.
"A SUCCESS UNPRECEDENTED."
See following Extract from the Globe of May 14, 1868.
"Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of "Maravilla" Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For Homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage."
Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original HOMŒOPATHIC COCOA and SOLUBLE CHOCOLATE.

BRITISH COLLEGE OF HEALTH EUSTON ROAD, LONDON.
FIFTY YEARS' USE OF THESE MEDICINES
(Morison's Vegetable Universal Medicines)
By the public has proved their efficacy and virtues, and the truth of Mr. MORISON'S system as to the cure of diseases. Being composed only of vegetable matter or medicinal herbs, they are harmless to the most tender age or weakest frame, under every stage of suffering; the most unpleasant in their operation; and the most certain in searching out the root of any complaint. Besides cleansing the great highway of the body—the bowels—they act copiously on the kidneys, the liver, and the skin. A sense of relief in the whole system is felt very shortly after they have been taken,—the blood flows more evenly, the heart beats more regularly, and sleep is given to those long deprived of it. The medicines consist of three sorts. No. 1 MORISON'S PILLS; No. 2 MORISON'S PILLS. In boxes at 7½d., 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.; family packets, 11s. each; also the Vegetable Aperient Powders, 1s. 1½d. per box.

MORISON'S UNIVERSAL OINTMENT
Is recommended as the best external application in all cases of Wounds, Cutaneous Eruptions, &c. In Pots at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. each.
